The Ocean City Elks Lodge #2645 ANNUAL GOLF TOURNAMENT HISTORY

The Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks is a nationwide organization of well over a million members. Founded in 1868, we have adopted the concept of a "mutual benefit" society which was broadened into the grander idea of charity for all.

The Ocean City Elks Lodge # 2645, received its charter on October 3, 1982. Since our charter began we have provided charitable donations to assist our military veterans, local churches, schools and other organizations which have a need.

Beginning in 1985 the Lodge formed a Scholarship Committee whose objective was to raise funds which would provide monetary assistance for the further education of local students. In May, of that year one scholarship was awarded to a student of Stephen Decatur High School. The amount presented was for $300.00 a year for four years. These funds were mainly contributions from within the Lodge.

For six years thereafter, the Scholarship program was supported by the lodge, along with funds raised from a Scholarship Golf Tournament. These funds provided one scholarship each year. Later the tournament committee grew in size and provided additional incentives, which found a larger number of players participating to a point where funds increased, allowing for additional students to receive greater amounts.

On May 25, 2011 the Lodge will award four Stephen Decatur Seniors $1,000 per year for four years; totaling $16,000. As of May, 2011 the Lodge has recognized 59 seniors from Stephen Decatur High School and Worcester Preparatory School with scholarships totaling over $200,000. These students have enrolled in 37 colleges or universities. In September of this year, the Lodge will be funding 14 scholars in college, who will be receiving $1,000 to $1,500 per year.

The Scholarship Committee deeply appreciates the tremendous help it receives from the Ocean City Elks Lodge #2645 Annual Golf Outing Committee. This fund raiser has become the primary source of the Scholarship Fund. They would also be remiss if they did not recognize the players, Eagle's Landing Golf Course, the many local business and individual sponsors, the Elks Golf Associates, the Elks Ladies Auxiliary and the individuals who contribute with tax free donations.

The next Ocean City Elks Lodge # 2645 Golf Tournament will be held on Monday, June 13, 2011 at Eagles Landing Golf Course. We are hoping to maximize this event. The cost is $95.00 per golfer and includes continental breakfast, hot dogs and beverages on the course and dinner at the Elks Lodge. Prizes will be awarded to A, B, C, and D Flights. Additional giveaways will also be awarded.

If interested or for further information please contact
Bill Thompson at 302-436-8038 or Bob Zogran at 410-641-5071.

SHORE UP WITH THE GAME COACH

CARSON LOVETT, MA, SPORT PSYCHOLOGY

Golf is great! The Tour on the Shore is off to a fantastic start. The 2011 edition of The Master's Tournament was one of the most competitive ever, and the buzz about the game is at a fevered pitch and incredibly inspirational. The momentum being created can serve as a driving force for golfers of all ages who are focused on maximizing performance. But before blowing the budget on new clubs or the latest gadgets, remember the words of legendary golfer Bobby Jones, who once said, "Competitive golf is played mainly on a five and-a-half inch course...the space between your ears".

Sport Psychologists and Mental Game Coaches agree that a sure-fire sign that a golfer could benefit from consultation is the inability to repeat successful practice habits during competitive play. If you are wondering whether a Game Coach is right for you at this stage of your skill development, here is a list of common questions and concerns that golfers share with their Consultants: How can I develop more effective thought-management skills to better navigate the periods of success and bouts of disappointment that occur during competition? How do I eliminate self-doubt and maintain self-confidence when my performance is not up to par? How can I avoid getting angry on the course, or can it be used to my advantage? How can I control my excitement when I am playing well? Lastly, how can I sustain the aggressive nature that got me the lead?

The golf world is motivated, and its athletes are angling for every advantage imaginable. Acquiring the skill and stamina necessary to successfully negotiate an 18-hole course can be a daunting task. Mastering the five and-a-half inch course will make that mission possible.

GOLF IN THE COMMUNITY the kings of ocean city!

MARDI GRAS KING BUDDY TRALA

When John Barrett (Barrett Chevrolet) and Buddy Trala (Sunset Grille) were asked to help raise money for the Ocean City Parrot Head Club's Annual Mardi Gras fundraiser, they gladly accepted the invite. This years fundraising proceeds are benefitting Worcester Youth and Family Counseling Services and the PJ Aldridge Foundation for Lung Cancer Reserarch. Since both John and Buddy have been extremely close friends with PJ for years, they considered it an honor to help with PJ's foundation. They worked day and night for seven straight weeks to raise as much money as possible for their dear friend that was diagnosed with lung cancer just one year ago. They raised money through golf tourneys to anchor their fundraising campaigns. John Barrett held his tourney at Ocean City Golf Club and the event sold out even though the weather called for rain. Buddy held an open house golf day at the Links at Lighthouse Sound course. Kim Ruark Mihaly and her father, Tom Ruark, donated the course free of charge for the day and simply asked for a $25.00 donation for the cause. A huge success, Kim ran the beverage cart and Tom worked the grill. After seven weeks of casino nights, raffles, golf tourneys and everything else they could think of, it was time for the big Mardi Gras party and time to count the money raised by all involved. This year the nominees shattered all previous records with a final total of $138,000! The six individuals that helped raise this incredible amount were Buddy Trala, Tammy Cebula (Galaxy 66 & Lovin' Life Limos), John Barrett, Kathy Denk, Todd Bescak and Tara Gates. Congratulations to all for their tireless efforts.

2010 GROSS CHAMP

This whole journey has been an incredible and unforgettable experience.

I was invited by my good friend Bud Morgan and almost turned him down for a couple of reasons. One, It had to be the hottest day on earth and two because I was under the impression it was a 4 man scramble. I thought "that is a long way to drive for a scramble". But, because I love the sport and thought of winning a trip to Pinehurst would be awesome, I accepted his invitation.

I remember vividly having dinner with another couple the night before the tournament. My wife made a toast to all of us going to Pinehurst. (Obviously not thinking that I would be on the winning team.)

Once it sunk in that I won, not my team, I had mixed emotions. If it weren't for Bud asking I wouldn't be here but yet I was stoked that I was on my way to Pinehurst. Arriving at Pinehurst was amazing. Mercedes treated us like royalty. From the moment we stepped off of the shuttle van to the morning we left. While I was golfing on the infamous Pinehurst #2 my wife was being treated to spa treatments and golf lessons. What could be better than that? Maybe winning?

The day I was to golf is when I met my most humble partner, Stan Botts. From the moment we met, we clicked. We both agreed "it was an honor to be playing here, so let's go out and have fun." Well, we did have fun and I am happy to say... we won! Praise the Lord. I was now going to Augusta!

On to Augusta. This trip I took a very good friend, Lorne Clemens. When I arrived, it was a balmy 80 degrees, beautiful perfect golfing weather. As fate would have it, that night a major storm came thru the area; trees down and power out all the next day. This was not good for the golfer's guests or the golfers themselves. Instead of staying in the house with no power, Lorne walked the course. Stan and I, agreed to have a good time and remember that it is an honor to be here, in Augusta. We had fun, made great memories. Tied for the lead but lost the title due to Mercedes taking the lower handicap team. We were disappointed yet still grateful to have advanced this far.

Having access to a VIP suite which served everything from lobster tail to sliced prime rib all day long! Camilo Villegas and Tim Rosenforte had dinner with us one evening as well as Creed entertaining us another evening.

This entire journey has been unbelievable. I've had the opportunity to make the most amazing memories, sharing them with my beautiful wife at Pinehurst. I was able to make a dream come true for a very close friend of mine, Lorne Clemens, by having him as my guest to Augusta. Last but not least, I have gained a lifelong friend, Stan Botts. I have enjoyed every step of this journey and feel very blessed and honored to have had this amazing experience. Thank you Bud for asking me to join your group! When is the next tournament?

STAN BOTTS

2010 NET CHAMP

This all started with what appeared to be a routine invitation from my good friend John Allen to join him for a round of golf in Cambridge at the Hyatt. He indicated that if I wanted to play and be considered for the prize that I would have to bring an up-to-date handicap and provide proof. I headed out for Cambridge and made a stop at the Easton Club Golf shop and picked up a current copy of my handicap to present.

The trip to Cambridge was smooth but getting into the course was a nightmare due to an accident at the light entering the Hyatt. Fortunately, the tournament officials were aware of the difficulty and were delaying the start to accommodate me and others caught in the backup due to the accident.

After racing to get registered and picking up the registration gift, I thought this was really nice and was quite satisfied to be invited to play and then get such nice gifts. My play for the day started off horrible with a nine on the first hole but after good advice from John to put it behind me and just play and enjoy myself I went on to have the best round of my life, an 81.

One of our playing partners Neil, who is good at figuring out handicaps and adjustments, started telling me before we were finished that I had a good chance of winning the net portion of the event with the handicap I was carrying. I blew that off as him just trying to pump me up after starting so poorly. After finishing things got even better. They had a great spread for dinner and drinks and I thought this is really sweet as I prepared a plate and got a drink.

Never looking at the score board Neil and others started to keep me advised of the fact that I was the leading net score. To top it all off I was declared the low net and won the great prize of a trip to Pinehurst and a crystal trophy which I was happier about than the trip. I was in such a state of disbelief that I never paid much attention to the fact that I had acquired a partner for the Pinehurst event who I never saw again until Pinehurst and we hit it off like long lost friends and agreed to just have fun and enjoy the opportunity.

Off to Pinehurst with my good friend John since he had gotten me into the event originally and my wife was not interested in going. Mercedes greets us at the airport and gives us four days of royal treatment. In addition to this royal treatment we have a lot of fun, I make a new friend in my partner Steve and he plays some of the best golf I have ever had the opportunity to be a partner to.

Steve's play and my average play with my high handicap results in us being the winner in Pinehurst. The grand prize was a trip to Augusta for the Mercedes National Championship the week of the Masters with an opportunity to go to the practice rounds and a lovely crystal trophy with gift cards. Now this gets my wife's attention and she has me inform John that she will be going to Augusta and again the crystal trophy excites me as much as the other prizes (forgot to mention I collect crystal).

So, my wife Carol and I make plans for Augusta and get the rest of the family and friends excited about this great opportunity and experience. Again, I arrive at the site of the event and the Mercedes treatment is beyond description. Unfortunately, the rain and cold on the day of play did not agree with me and I played horrible the first nine and settled into my normal level of play the second nine. But, the damage had been done and Steve was not able to carry me this time (I was a little too heavy). But, we finished second, we had a great time, my wife loved it, we parlayed the trip into a visit to Columbia and Charleston, South Carolina which we thoroughly enjoyed.

Bottom line the entire Mercedes experience was something that is still like a dream to me and will always be remembered as the opportunity of a lifetime. Last, but absolutely not least is Mercedes of Salisbury for starting this all and Nina and the folks at Mercedes of Salisbury have just been a fantastic sponsoring dealership.

Thanks to all the Mercedes folks I met along the way and you sure know how to host a golf event at every level.

The best in the world always make it look easy. Eric Clapton's smooth motion gave him the nickname Slow Hand. What you would see in concert would seem like the music was flowing through him. Tiger Woods in peak performance, would sink putts that appeared to be destined to go into the hole right off the putter face. You knew it and he knew it. What you didn't see were the hours Eric and Tiger spent practicing. Clapton once said "If I don't practice one day, I can feel the difference. If I don't practice two days, my audience can hear the difference." The point is that while they make it look easy, it isn't easy getting there.

Golf is a game of patience. The only thing that happens quickly in golf is a high score on a hole. You walk off the green scratching your head thinking "What the heck just happened?" Golf requires patience in three ways, in the game, in the swing and in the improvement.

In The Game

Patience in the game means that you shouldn't try to make up for any bad shots by hitting heroic shots or by trying to murder the next tee shot because you're angry about a three putt on the last hole. This can easily turn a bogey into a double bogey or higher. You can come back from a bogey, but it's very difficult to make up for doubles. Stay in a calm focus knowing there are plenty of opportunities that are coming your way. It doesn't have to happen right now.

In The Swing

In the golf swing, there needs to be patience in the motion. Balance and timing are everything. You need to let speed build in the swing. A quick take-away can lead to tightening of the muscles. Then, there's little, if any, chance of a smooth transition into the forward swing. A quick snatch from the top of the swing can get you out of sequence and out of position, leading to a misdirected shot. The golf swing is a sequential movement of your muscle groups. You need the time for it all to take place. Practice in super slow motion to get a feel for the sequencing. As you start getting a feel for the right motion, slowly begin to increase the speed, but stay in sequence.

Patience in Improvement

After winning his first Masters, it took Tiger Woods a year and a half to make a swing change with Butch Harmon. Imagine that. The number one player in the world with one of the top teachers in the game, hitting a thousand balls a day and it took a year and a half. After taking a lesson, you may understand completely what the new move is supposed to be. But, golf is not like a math equation where you know the formula and just have to fill in numbers. You have to train yourself through repetitions, practicing short and working towards long, and committing to it on the course. Taking one lesson and then thinking that you should "have it" is unrealistic. Very seldom will you get it immediately. Golf is a game where, if you practice the right things on a consistent basis, you look back after a year and think "Wow! I came along way." You may not remember a specific moment where you see it happened. You should have the Ah Ha moment. That's when you understand the concept along with the feeling. Then you have to engrain it.

The fringe benefit to working on your patience in your golf game is that you learn patience in your life. We all thank you for that!

Are you looking for more core strength, flexibility, and balance?
Want more distance to your drives?

Why TRX is perfect for Golfers? Golf is a sport that challenges critical to a great golf game.

"We all want to get better, and this training method is a sure way

The Tour on the Thore is off to a great start with over 150 players attending the first 3 events and 65 players earned points. Deer Run, Ocean Resorts and Great Hope were all in great shape for early spring. Steve Pappas was quoted saying, "I haven't played Deer Run in years, and I must say, I really love the challenging layout here." Former all-pro safety for the Baltimore Colts played very well in his tourney debut. The tour has a lot of new faces and there were different winners in all 4 flights at each of the first 3 tourneys. The Tour on the Shore uses a player scoring average to handicap the players. We track everyone's score that has ever played in our events and use a scoring average for their handicap to keep an honest tour scoring system. When 65 year old Ronnie Hudson shot a career low round (even par) at his home course (Deer Run) to win the C flight trophy as a 13 handicap, there were a few grumbles of a possible sandbagger. We went to our player scoring average sheet and showed Mr. Hudson's previous scores, (79 Deer Run last year, 91 Great Hope, 91 Baywood Greens, 87 Lighthouse, 86 Eagles Landing, 91 Nassawango) those scores showed that he has averaged 87.5 on Tour, the grumble then stopped, and Ronnie Hudson was named Player of the Month by ESGM. We want to keep everyone on a level playing field to eliminate sandbaggers, and after talking it over with many of the regular tour players, we all agreed that this is the best way to do so.

This year's prize package will include all 64 qualifiers and the 20 Pro-Invitational players to receive an Under Armour gift pack to include 2 Under Armour Tour Championship Golf Shirts and an Under Armour Sports Bag. The top point earner in each flight @ the end of the regular season will win a great gift pack that will include a $250 gift certificate to Ruddos Golf, $250 gift certificate to Greene Turtle Sports Bar and Grille, $250 gift certificate to Blue Ox Bar & Grille, $150 Gift Certificate to Coco's Funhouse, Bulova Championship watch, and much more to come.....

The 2011 Tour on the Shore Champions will receive a 5 day 4 night golf trip to Myrtle Beach for two. Prize to include accommodations and 4 rounds of golf for the Champions and their guest.

E n d l e s s GOLF

BY BOBBY VERMILLION

T h a t feeling

If you play competitive golf you have probably had that feeling. You know the feeling you get when your all square going into 18 or the need to make par on the last hole of your club championship, maybe it's having to make a 4ft putt to beat your best friend by one stroke in your weekly grudge match or maybe your name is Rory McIlroy and your leading The Masters going into the final round. Whatever the circumstance all golfers know that feeling that makes your palms sweat your hands shake and your mind play tricks on you. Most golfers love that feeling and if they pull off the win it puts them on top of the world for at least that day and maybe all week. How much fun is it to make that crucial shot or drain that 4ft putt that makes the difference between winning and losing? But for all the times as golfers we succeed there are many more times that we fail and sometimes we just plain choke. For those of you who say I never choke! I say you have never played in or for anything that was really important to you or you just lie. That's why when I see someone like Rory McIlroy go through what he went through at Augusta it makes me sick to my stomach. I can only imagine how bad he wanted to win The Masters and after his tee shot on 13 how much he wanted to get off of the golf course. Golf can be a cruel game like that. It makes you feel like you are on top of the world when things go your way and like a complete failure when you can't find your swing or make a putt to save your life. So even though when we play and the stakes are nowhere near as high as they were for Rory. It doesn't mean that we can't feel his pain. So the next time you find yourself in that situation remember this. If you succeed you're probably not as great as you think you are and if you fail you're not a loser either. You're just like every other golfer in the world, "human".

One of the best golf tips I've ever received was "get yourself some good golf shoes.." Just because you don't play much or you are not that good doesn't mean you should cheat your feet. The best tour players in the world walk the same as you and I, so why not take care of your feet just as they do.

Footjoy continues to be the #1 selling shoe in golf. FJ's top seller is the Contour Series. With a shoe construction often found in running shoes, the Contour is made without an insole board, producing a more contoured underfoot platform with increased flexibility. Featuring a full-grain leather upper for outstanding comfort, breathability and durability with a 2-year waterproof warranty and stability and cushioning that remains constant for the life of the shoe.

Ecco Golf struck gold when they signed Fred Couples to be their national sales rep. Of course he's not actually a sales rep, but ever since he wore these shoes at the 2010 Master's, sales have been off the charts. The Golf Street Premier has a full leather upper with a young looking silhouette and excellent ground stability. This hybrid casual shoe is street shoe inspired to be worn both on and off the course. Ecco shoes are one of the best made shoes in the world and the Golf Street Premier does not disappoint. You GOTTA try them on and see how comfortable they are.

Nike is always a leader in the footwear business and golf is no different. The new, lightweight (VERY lightweight) Air Range WP is sure to be a top shoe this season. With a mesh and leather upper for durability and breath-ability, visible Nike Air unit in the heel, 2-year waterproof warranty and an integrated traction sole, the Nike Air Range WP may take your game to the next level ( or at least make your feet, legs and back feel better trying).

Adidas has some of the top performing golf shoes in the business. The Powerband 3.0 combines function and fashion effectively. According to Adidas, the Powerband 3.0 is the most powerful shoe they have ever made. Full-grain leather upper, 100% waterproof, cushioning and comfort from heel to toe and THiNTEch low-profile outsole to promote better footwork and ultimately more consistent ball-striking. Tour-proven technologies to deliver peak performance to you and I.

Check out these and over 1,000 other pair men's and ladies shoes at Ruddo's Golf in West Ocean City and Lewes, DE.

Golf Wellness

"I wish you a healthy spring and enjoy the great weather that it brings!"

This time of the year is the best to get out and play golf. After a long winter there is nothing better than a perfect spring day to lift our mood and get outdoors. The down side of this is for those who suffer from seasonal allergies. Yes, how many times have you heard 'bless you' this spring? That constant sneezing, watery eyes, sinus headaches and annoying runny nose are all sure to drive you crazy.

Pollen from trees, weeds and grasses are spread by wind. You know when you wake up to a yellow car, it's going to be a bad one. It's always best to stay indoors from 5 am - 10 am when it tends to be at the highest levels. You may want to shower after being outdoors and change your clothes. Keep your windows closed in your home and car so pollen does not blow in. Also try a netty pot to wash out sinuses from pollen you could have breathed in. There are many other factors to take into consideration with allergic reactions such as environmental toxins, food, pet dander, dust mites and a big factor on the Eastern Shore is mold. These problems can be more serious. Keep in mind that my article is for educational purposes and you should always consult a physician to assist you with your health problems.

Speaking from my own experience, and with some pretty amazing testimonials from my friends, Amazon Herb Company has helped the body's response from some of these problems by keeping the body healthy in a natural way. My favorite thing to do is to make others look and feel better so naturally I have to share this information with you.

One of the Rainforests most potent herbs for a healthy immune system is Arcozon. It acts like a natural antibiotic. Stress, poor diet and illness wreck havoc on your immune system leaving you vulnerable to viruses and infections. These herbs are meant to improve your respiratory system, kidney cleanse, help with microbial balance of the intestinal tract and maintain proper joint health. Fiberzon acts like an intestinal broom which reduces mucus in the body. (If you have allergies I don't suggest that you eat dairy because it is very mucus forming.) This also helps with proper elimination and I have friends who say it's incredible how quickly they could feel their body respond to the benefits. Envirozon is intended to help the body function better from food and environmental allergies. This naturally assists the body to cleanse and restore balance after exposure to impurities. It also supports liver and kidney function. Lastly one of my favorite products is Recovazon. Sinus headaches and inflammation can make you feel like you've hit a wall. Been there and done that! This is an amazing herbal supplement that can reduce that inflammation in the sinus cavities and any place in the body, also being a muscle relaxer it's a great benefit to take after playing golf to reduce aches and pains.

GOLF FITNESS - WRIST INJURIES

This month I would like to briefly look at wrist injuries in golf. While not a common injury, it nonetheless occurs. Injuries tend to be either soft tissue (usually tendons) or, on occasion, bony. The former usually are overuse injuries of the flexor and extensor tendons of the forearm. They usually are precipitated by elements of an improper golf swing, gripping the club too tightly and, of course, impacting the ground when taking an overly big swing, especially out of the rough. The left wrist is usually injured in right-handed golfers. Advancing age, a previous injury and anatomic abnormalities can increase the risk. When the pain of tendinous injury occurs, the treatment is resting the wrist, analgesics and occasionally the injection of steroids.

The most common bony injury is fracture of the hook of the hamate, one of the 8 small carpal bones in the wrist. Unfortunately, this injury is often diagnosed late; if found early, a cast may be the treatment. If not, surgery may be required to remove damaged bone fragments.

DR. PETE ZEMO

Some suggestion to minimize wrist injuries include slowing down the backswing to lessen whip on the wrist. Some recommend flattening the back swing to decrease the chance of the club hitting the ground and taking a big divot, especially when the ground is dry and hard. Also, keeping the hands in parallel alignment to allow the wrist to achieve its natural motion has been recommended. As in previous articles, good equipment and good swing techniques minimize the risk of any injury. And one final point- we have talked over and over about the importance of a strong body core. If the core is weak, experts say that will encourage the golfer to use the wrists to throw the club at the ball; with a strong core you will be more able to bring the larger muscle groups into play and use your body to swing the club. Keep up with the Pilates exercises.

FIRST DE CLUB TO GO SOLAR!

Cripple Creek started looking into the viability of utilizing solar power to offset rapidly escalating energy costs about six months ago. Three companies bid on the job and the contract was awarded to Flexera, a Harbeson, Delaware-based, comprehensive design-build alternative energy company.

Flexera installed four photovoltaic systems for Cripple Creek: an 8190-watt, 39-panel system for their pool; a 17,640-watt, 84-panel system for their golf cart barn; a 12,600-watt, 60-panel system for their maintenance facility; and a 15,120-watt, 72-panel system for their irrigation systems.

Hunsberger said Cripple Creek's board formed an energy committee and started looking into several forms of alternative energy, including solar, wind and geothermal, "anything we could do to lower our energy costs," about a year ago.

"The best rate of return came from solar," he said. "Our main decision when Flexera's figures came in was based on the fact that we could cut energy costs for the long term with a payback period of about four years. Federal grants, state grants and SREC's are essential to making this project economical for our club."

The pool and cart systems were up and running in December. The maintenance facility system went live in January and the irrigation system was online in February. The energy cost for February, the first full month of operation for all four systems, was less than 40% of the previous year's cost, according to Flexera Vice President Benjamin Farr.

"At this point in time we're very satisfied with the operation of the system and the financial results," said Hunsberger. "The panels blend in with the roofs and we're selling energy back to Delaware Electric Co-op, and when we're not doing that, we're reducing our power bills. And that helps us contain costs for our members."

EASTERN SHORE JUNIOR GOLF LEAGUE 2010 SEASON RECAP

WRITTEN BY LEAGUE PRESIDENT, KEVIN WHITE

October 2010 and year 3 of the Eastern Shore Junior Golf League was now complete. It was another year of growth as the League increased to 70 golfers. The season began in June 2010 with a draft followed by practices beginning just after July the 4th. The Senior League (ages 13 to 18) contained 3 teams and the Junior League (ages 8 to 12) 6 teams. The regular season began mid-August and consisted of 10 head-to-head matches. The matches were played weekly using team match play format much like high school matches. At the end of each season, 24 players are selected to participate in a Ryder Cup format event which is played in October.

Over the past 3 years, our League has offered the youth of the Eastern Shore a place to learn more about the greatest game on earth. The first year, 2008, we had only 33 youth participating, in 2010, we had 70 and are poised for additional growth. This is in large part because of all the great people whom have gotten involved and given of their time and facilities. The League would be grateful to Karen McInturff, and the Wicomico County Parks and Recreation, for their support over the past two years. Next, we also wish to thank all of the head coaches who have given of their time and talents over this past season, some even for multiple seasons. Head coaches are Dale King, Wil Massey, Mike Levengood, Brian Workman, Howard Pusey, Ken Davis, and Randy Mitchell. These coaches, along with the assistant coaches and parent helpers are the lifeblood for success in our organization. Finally, the Head Professionals who gave of themselves and their courses make this League possible by keeping the fees low and even free when able. They include Rob Bailey of the Bay Club, Art Scott of Wood Creek, Mike Tritopoe of Heritage Shores, Tim Brittingham of Great Hope, David Combs of Nutters Crossing, Dennis Winters of River Run, Buddy Sass of Ocean City Yacht and CC, and Bob Beckelman of Deer Run. The generosity of these men has made it possible for the kids on the Eastern Shore to learn about the game of golf while experiencing excellent venues, at affordable rates. We encourage our readers to offer them their patronage in 2011-by doing so you are also supporting Junior Golf.

The League plans to continue for a 4th season in Spring 2011 and we welcome more players, ages 8 to 18, from all over the Shore. If you would like to sign up your child for this year, please email me (see below) starting in February.

Also, if you love the game of golf, live some where else other than the Salisbury area, and want to start your own golf league in your town, just give me a call and I will be happy to give you information on how we can expand the opportunities for all the youth of the Shore.

FROM THE PRO!

BY BOB BECKELMAN

How to Hit a 1 IRON

You know the quote: "only GOD can hit a ONE IRON", well today I'm going to teach YOU how to hit ONE. Actually that's not entirely true...truthfully it's almost entirely a non fact...but I have reason to lie. Today's clubs are so long and strong of loft, that your 7iron today is comparable to a 5 iron of old (15 or 20 years ago) so a ONE iron would be comparable to like a negative TWO iron...unless you are playing with clubs from 15 or 20 years ago (in which case I strongly suggest going to see John and Derrick at RUDDO'S Golf for an upgrade to the 21st century). In the infinite wisdom of marketing geniuses, the golf club companies discovered that players wanted nothing more than to hit the ball farther. So, in an epiphany of incredible discovery, they figured that if each club was longer than currently standard, and a couple of degrees stronger in loft, lo and behold, the ball would go farther. I don't know why they just didn't just re-number the clubs and save a bunch of trouble. (Maybe that's what they did...no one will ever know). In any case, clubs got longer and longer and stronger and stronger over the years, and that's the primary reason most people struggle with the long irons (5, 4, & 3 etc.).

So now, even GOD can't hit a ONE iron. What is a mere mortal to do? The strengthening of lofts in irons has created the necessity of Gap Wedges to fill the gap left from the strong lofted Pitching Wedges, and now this unforeseen situation has created the necessity of yet another club to appear from the ether...THE MIGHTY HYBRID!

Hybrid clubs have actually appeared from time to time in the past, but have just recently gained world wide acceptance and popularity. You can even find them in Professional Golfers bags, so you know they must be good! The current models are all very similar, and all are designed to do the same thing...replace your impossible to hit loooooooooooooooooooooongggggg Irons! Hybrids make it much easier (for most people) to hit those long fairway shots nice and high and accurate, or at least high enough to save some worms, and accurate enough to stay on the planet! Go out and try some hybrids and see if they suit your game and can replace those nasty long irons (RUDDO'S Golf again)...with any luck you'll be back to smashing those pesky long fairway shots and lowering your scores.

I have noticed lately though, that the heads on the hybrid clubs are starting to get bigger and bigger...they almost look like...I don't know...maybe like a.....fairway wood? I don't know for sure, I'll leave it to you to judge, but maybe it's the manufacturers again...playing their marketing games. Only the future will tell. So maybe I lied about teaching you to hit a ONE Iron...just doing a little marketing!

Blowin' Smoke with Leif Burnes.

The recent mild weather has allowed more opportunities to get out, stick a tee in the ground and light one up. As previously stated, my mission is to do the tedious ground work, The heavy duty, on-course research to bring you cigars that are flavorful and a value to help make your golf-cigar experience better. Who wants to have a harsh cigar ruin an otherwise great trip around the links?

Well after working my way through many good smokes and a few not so good ones, I kept going back to the Serie O by the Oliva Cigar Company. The Serie O is a Nicaraguan Puro. The same Habano seed is grown in diverse regions of Nicaragua to give it a distinctive blend.

On The Range

The appearance of the cigar has a nice leathery, medium brown wrapper that shows the richness you are about to experience. The aroma emanating from the cigar and the wrapper give you a tasty start as you prepare to light up.

Front Nine

At first, the smoke was just a bit dry. It could have been me or maybe it could have needed just a little more time in the humidior. But that dryness was temporary as it soon began developing its flavor. The burn was nice and even with a smooth draw.

Back Nine

By the halfway point, my taste buds were anticipating every next draw. It was reminding me of a bold, yet silky smooth cup of coffee with about the same kick. For a golf course smoke it's a nice balance between flavor and kick that I'm looking in a cigar and this one fills the bill nicely.

Award Yourself

Mike Pfingst saw a need not being fulfilled and acted on it. Mike and his family run the Etch-Art Awards at 931 Mt. Hermon Road in Salisbury, Maryland. When a customer getting a humidior engraved asked where she could purchase quality cigars, Mike realized that there wasn't a tobacconist in the area. With knowledge acquired over his 18 years experience in cigar enjoyment, he knew he could offer quality cigars that were properly stored and value priced for his customers.

The Smoke Shop at Etch-Art Awards currently carries top notch brands such as Drew Estate, Ybor City, Tarano, JC Newman and Kristoff to name a few. Since opening in August 2010, Mike has developed a large, loyal customer base. He hopes to eventually expand the business into a cigar lounge as well.

While you might think that a cigar shop inside an awards business is a bit unique, it actually fits in quite nicely. You can purchase humidors, lighters, and other gifts and have them engraved right there. Mike also caters cigars for events, parties or outings. If you want personalized bands on your cigars, he does that as well. On May 7, Mike will be at Common Grounds in North Salisbury for a coffee and cigar tasting event. With all that Mike has achieved in this short time, it shouldn't be long before we see the Smoke Shop at Etch-Art Awards grow into a nice lounge. In the mean time, why not stop and award yourself with a nice trophy-sized cigar.

PGA GOLF MANAGEMENT STUDENTS TEAM UP TO CLEAN UP MANOKIN RIVER PARK

On April 2, 2011 the PGA Golf Management Program teamed with students from the Hotel and Restaurant Management Program to offer community service to the town of Princess Anne, MD, the home of the University of Maryland Eastern Shore. The students converged on Manokin River Park for a much needed clean up of the surrounding area.

"As we are training to become PGA Professionals, the expectation for us is to become leaders in whatever community it is that we are employed. As a requirement of the Professional Golf Management Student Association (PGMSA), we perform at least one community service project every semester. It makes sense for us to work closely with Princess Anne and hopefully they enjoy working with us" said Erik Carlson, President of the PGMSA. Chris Prosser, Internship Coordinator added "The main purpose of the semester community service project is to offer our students a way and show them the importance of giving back to the community."

Once the clean up was completed, the students then cooked hot dogs for the locals. "It was great to see so many people come out to the park and enjoy free hot dogs. Hopefully we can make this an annual event" said Carlson.

YOU KNOW THE DRILL BE THE BALL!

BY STEVE MENZ

This is an old drill we used to get the feel or speed of the greens when we played a new course. Take 3 balls and putt towards a tee in the green about 15 feet away. With the first ball, hit your putt while looking only at the tee in the green. The second putt, hit it with your eyes closed towards the tee. The last ball, putt it normally at the tee in the green. Repeat this drill a few times and you will master the speed of the greens. You can also do this drill towards a hole, but a tee is a smaller target and it helps you focus more. Now you know the drill!

YOUR PATH TO PAR Richard Robinson- Instructor The Original Golf School

RICHARD & STATUE OF BEN HOGAN

Golf is a dramatic game. It gives us opportunity to face risk reward situations and boldly attack or creatively circumvent the hazards lurking on the course and in our minds. If we meet the challenge we are gifted with the thrilling affirmation that we did it, and the hope and expectation we will do it again. If we fail we engrave the score card with the indelible memory of our failure quantified in a number.

Nothing can spoil a round, or dampen the enthusiasm of a golfing vacation, quicker than the one errant shot that leads to a catastrophic score on one hole. Why? One reason is our conditioning to focus on the bottom line. The score becomes our primary goal not playing the game. The best players play one shot at a time and let the score take care of itself. Easier said than done. Yet, there is a very good way to blend our quest for the quantitative affirmation of a good score, with the joy of meeting the challenges of the game. It is the British Stableford scoring system.

The Stableford system is widely used in British amateur competitions where the combined challenge of weather and links courses almost guarantee "disaster" holes. It also speeds up the pace play so the typical 18 hole walking time is 3 ½ hours. The system is simple. You focus on scoring points not saving strokes. You "score" 1 point for a bogey, 2 for par, 3 for birdie, 4 for eagle, 5 for the rare double eagle, 0 points for double bogey or higher. The practical effects are dramatic. First, you can pick up the ball after playing the "bogey" stroke without the guilt of thinking you quit on the hole. Second, you begin to think shot by shot. An errant tee shot may eliminate the chance for birdie or par, but you can still score by making bogey. Playing more strategically and persistently may surprise you with scrambling pars. Third, you think like a winner. You don't "lose" strokes to Old Man Par or fear the Bogey Man, they give points to you! You can flirt with Disaster without making a life long commitment.

Lest you scoff at this approach as inauthentic, it has been used in Britain and around the world since 1898. Also, remember the USGA equitable stroke control system limits the number of double bogeys or higher in handicap calculation. If you insist on being bound to score thresholds try to score 10, 15, 20, 25 or 30 Stableford points. A few years ago a trip to my visit father's Belfast home, I played my first Stableford round at Royal Portrush. I met a gentleman who played to a 34. Did a quadruple bogey on a hole called Calamity ruin his day. No. Let's see 2 point for par, 18 holes, 30 mph hour winds, waste high rough, holes named Calamity and Purgatory. Could he play? It was dramatic! It's was positive It was fun!

VIDEO GAMES

STEVE MENZ

While I am excited about the newest release from EA Sports, Tiger Woods 2012 this article isn't exactly about arcade video games. Don't get me wrong, I WILL be playing that Tiger game on PS3 and Wii because it features our Mecca, Augusta National. Unfortunately, this may be the closest the majority of us will get to check that item off our "Bucket List". The better point of this article is to promote video lessons from your Golf Instructor. Getting your golf swing on video used to be an arduous task. The camera and equipment were bulky. You needed to stabilize the camera and take the tape back to a VCR to play it. The video itself was grainy and hard to see when the instructor tried to slow it down. Normally, it wasn't easy to make a copy of the swing for you to take home. The higher cost of the video lesson usually made it a difficult pill to swallow when you wanted video instruction. Fear no more! The main point of a lesson that utilizes video is so the teacher can better explain by using visualization. Believe me, I have worked with a ton of students that thought they were swinging like Freddie Couples only to see their swing on video and describe it more like Fred Sanford. Many instructors are asking bloviated rates for simple video instruction. The simple truth, with today's technology the video aspect of teaching should be included in the price of the lesson. If you have a Smartphone, yes, there is an app for that. Some golf video apps are as little as $3.99 to $9.99. But, I do suggest you get a qualified set of eyes examining your work. Merely looking at your own swing you may not be able to see what a trained eye may be able to catch. In a simple quick video of a swing I can see many flaws that may be giving you trouble. The swing itself takes less than two seconds on average. The slow motion or stop frame ability during a swing can help your instructor quickly identify what is hurting your final product. With a video lesson, it is so much easier to assess each students address position, alignment, spine angle, takeaway, club head position and weight transfer, to name a few. We will have an easier view of fixing bad posture, inside club movement, squareness of club head, reverse pivot, lateral movement and over the top moves. Just one simple swing = hundreds of assessments. I love technology! If you would like to have your swing on a handy CD, stop by The "A" Game Golf Academy, we have 3 different video teaching areas! Don't worry, on rainy days, we'll hook up the Wii and play some Tiger too!

2011 STEPHEN DECATUR MIDDLE SCHOOL GOLF CLUB

■BY JIM KRALL

The second season of the Stephen Decatur Middle School Golf Club is well underway. This year's participation exceeded last season's numbers and grew to 27 seventh and eighth graders. The Club practices every Wednesday after school at Eagle's Landing Golf Course, Deer Run Golf Club and The Bay Club Golf Course. Players are receiving instruction from Stephen Decatur high school golf coaches Jim Krall and Scott Lenox, current Decatur high school players, and numerous parent and community volunteers. In addition, players will be treated to a free range lesson on a specific aspect of the game from head golf professionals Bob Croll (Eagle's), Bob Beckelman (Deer Run), and Rob Bailey (Bay Club).

The goal of the club is to teach kids the game at a young age so they may continue to enjoy the sport for a lifetime. Emphasis has been placed on respect and discipline for the game, while remembering to having fun along the way. First year players are learning the fundamentals of the golf grip, stance, swing, rules, and etiquette. Returning players from last year's inaugural season are building upon what they've learned to improve all aspects of their game from swing mechanics to course management.

The Bayside Schedule for the High School season has been scheduled. Golfers from the 9 high schools on the eastern shore of Maryland will be treated to stroke play competition at a dozen championship venues in our area. The Bayside South Conference is extremely fortunate to have the support of local golf course professionals and course owners. Thank you in advance for all you do for the young, aspiring athletes.
