THIS ISSUE DEDICATED TO TRISH HORAN
TRISH HORAN LOVED THE GAME OF GOLF AND GROWING THE SPORT, AND IT SHOWED IN HER SMILE AROUND THE LINKS. TRISH WORKED WITH JUNIOR GOLFERS FROM FLORIDA TO THE EASTERN SHORE. HER JOY OF SEEING JUNIORS SUCCEED IN GOLF AND TRULY LEARN THE GAME BROUGHT HER MUCH JOY. SHE ALSO LOVED GROWING THE GAME FOR WOMEN. SHE ALWAYS SPOKE ON HOW TO GROW THE GAME OF GOLF HERE ON THE EASTERN SHORE. ASIDE FROM TEACHING, YOU COULD FIND TRISH AT LIGHTHOUSE SOUND AND THE OLD BEACH CLUB GOLF LINKS SHOOTING PHOTOS OF THE GOLFERS. THERE IS NO DOUBT THAT WHILE SHE TOOK PHOTOS, THAT GLORIOUS SMILE CAME OUT AND MADE GOLFERS FEEL VERY WELCOME. SHE WAS ONE OF THE MOST FRIENDLY AND CARING GOLF TEACHERS THAT MANY HAVE KNOWN. SHE WILL BE MISSED DEARLY.

Recently, I and several of my friends enjoyed a golf package in Ocean City, Maryland booked through Ocean City Golf Groups. We had the experience of a lifetime and will never book through anyone else ever again. Karen and her staff went above and beyond any of my expectations to make our trip as great as possible. They are all so courteous and friendly from the time of booking until after our stay. Also, the hotel they booked for us, the Howard Johnson Oceanfront Plaza was the best hotel I have ever stayed at on the boardwalk and were also top notch in customer service. I would highly recommend Ocean City Golf Groups to anyone who is going to book a golf package in the Ocean City Maryland area.

Tom R. of Binghamton, NY

Recently I, as well as, some of my fellow friends have had the pleasure of booking a Golf trip through Ocean City Golf Groups. During this process we were extremely satisfied with the professionalism and accommodations that your staff allowed us to receive. It by far was an overall amazing and satisfying experience that we will have the pleasure of treasuring for years to come. With this being said, I wanted to take the time out of my busy schedule and make sure I commend and thank everyone at Ocean City Golf Groups on their great customer service and outstanding work ethic. We hope to begin planning more trips with you guys in the future.

William T. of Leonardtown, MD

I have been playing golf and staying at the Days Inn in Ocean City, MD for a few years now. I just want to give props to Karen Norvell and her staff at the Days Inn for always making my stay and golfing experience such a pleasure. She and her staff are always very courteous and professional in the handling of booking our golf group and seeing to it that everything is handled without any problems or glitches. Kudos to Ocean City Golf Groups. We'll see you again soon!

WHY CHOOSE OCEAN CITY GOLF GROUPS FOR YOUR NEXT GOLF VACATION? HERE ARE JUST A FEW REASONS.

To sum up Ocean City Golf Groups in a few words would be simple. Fast, accurate, friendly and overall completely awesome. Karen and her staff are simply magnificent, and I do not use these words lightly. When booking my golf trips, I have particular requests and many questions in order to reserve my very large golf group. I have tried only one other golf packager in the past and were sadly disappointed by what we found when we arrived, so back to Ocean City Golf Groups and Karen we went. They hit the nail on the head every year, always answering all my questions and adhering to all my many requests perfectly. My recommendation if you are looking to stay in exquisite hotels with challenging and adventurous Golf Courses, I suggest you call Karen and her staff today!

BIRTHPLACE & HOMETOWN: Born Easton, MD- Hometown Cambridge, MD

WHO INTRODUCED YOU TO GOLF? My Aunt Ricki introduced me to golf when I was 7-8 years old. I would ride along with her when she would play at Green Hill CC and finally one day, she bought me a 9 iron from their Lost & Found barrel. The first hole I played was a par 4, it might have taken me 10 or 11 strokes but I was hooked. She made golf fun and interesting, even for a young girl, and I have always loved playing with her. That 9 iron hangs on the wall in my house.

HIGH SCHOOL SPORTS: Tennis and golf; actually won States twice in girls doubles tennis and competed at States in golf; there were only a handful of girls competing at that time on the golf course.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Meeting and hosting Raymond Floyd on our River Marsh Golf course was a great moment while he was playing for Hyatt. Having the opportunity to work with large, worldwide corporations on a daily basis keeps the day to day very exciting too.

FAVORITE FOOD: A toss up...Mexican or steamed crabs

FAVORITE FOOTBALL TEAM: No football...Professional tennis, golf, surfing or skating are the only sports on my tv

FAVORITE TV SHOW: Another toss up...Scandal or The Walking Dead

FAVORITE MOVIE: Halloween

HOBBIES: Tennis, longboarding (skate), stand up paddle, hanging with my great group of friends, volunteering for Cambridge Main Street & Choptank Heritage Trail

FAVORITE GOLF COURSE: Torrey Pines...just a beautiful spot

FAVORITE PRO GOLFER: Adam Scott...for obvious reasons

WHERE DO YOU SEE YOURSELF IN TEN YEARS? Ideally I'll still be with Hyatt, it's a great company to work for and I'll have this golf course packed with tee times 3 seasons out of the year! Adding a beach house to the mix wouldn't be a bad thing either!

ANYTHING PEOPLE DON'T KNOW ABOUT YOU? I never thought I would work and live in my home town, it's completely unexpected. But when a Hyatt Resort is built in your little town, you feel compelled to stick around and give it a shot. Many of my good friends also returned home and we are all very active in revitalizing our historic downtown and community events. As it turned out, it's totally surprising but pretty amazing at the same time and I wouldn't change a thing...family and good friends are what is important in life.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

The Eastern Shore Chapter of the EWGA held their Annual Kickoff Event at Bayside Golf Club on March 30 with 90 members in attendance. This Event marks the beginning of the 2014 golf season. Due to inclement weather, an indoor golf clinic was conducted by pros Bob Crowther and Chad Dailey. The clinic focused on season readiness, putting and equipment. The Executive Women's Golf Association is the largest women's golf association nationally with over 15,000 members. The EWGA is a networking organization working to connect women to learn, play and enjoy golf for business and for fun. Women of all golf levels are invited to join, beginning with those new to the game of golf to single digit handicappers. There are events for all levels of play. The Eastern Shore Chapter of the Executive Women's Golf Association proudly boasts over 325 members. The 2014 season features nine leagues; seven 9 hole leagues including a new golfer/refreshers league and two 18 hole leagues. Leagues play is in Salisbury, Ocean City and lower Delaware. In addition to league play, monthly golf socials are held, including Nine n Dines and Sunday 18 hole member/guest play. Spring golf clinics are already underway and will continue throughout the summer. New this year will be the "Biggest Loser Handicap Challenge" and a Match Play Event. ## DENISE BILLINGS PRESIDENT PRMC MEDICAL CENTER FOUNDATION

This year marks the 15TH ANNUAL FOUNDATION GOLF CLASSIC. We are proud to report that through 2013 we have raised $2,016,190.80 for the Medical Center. Our success is due to the efforts of our terrific Board Members under the leadership of Chairman Leighton Moore, and our loyal sponsors who support the tournament year after year. With Leighton Moore as Chairman you can also count on the event being fun - another reason for success. The best part is that all of the fun is for a very important cause.

PENINSULA REGIONAL MEDICAL CENTER FOUNDATION'S

mission is to support the efforts of the Medical Center in improving the health of the community we serve. That means that the money raised from the Golf Classic is going toward programs and technology that are helping to save the lives of our friends, family and neighbors. Over the years, the Foundation has provided funds for lifesaving equipment such as the Image Checker, a CAD program to assist in the diagnosis of breast cancer; a Left Ventricle Assist Device that helps the heart pump blood in an emergency situation; and Trauma Monitors for our Emergency Department. One of the more visible products of our fundraising efforts is the Wagner Wellness Van which brings medical screenings into the community. Major campaigns have included a successful $15 million Expansion and Renovation Campaign and more recently, a $3 million Operating Room Renovation Campaign. Knowing that these vital causes are a part of why we are out on the greens makes the event even more fun and rewarding.

PRESIDENT OF THE WPGA HILARY SPENCE

player profile

BIRTHPLACE & HOMETOWN: Fairfield, CT born and raised until age 28. Moved to Easton, MD in 1983.

WHO INTRODUCED YOU TO GOLF? My husband. We lived next door to Talbot County Club beginning in 1985 and he urged me to take up the game. As an avid tennis player all of my life, I always thought golf was too time consuming. But since he loved to play and his parents would visit us from PA and wanted to play, I decided to give it a try. I've been playing regularly ever since at Talbot Country Club and am totally hooked on the game.

HIGH SCHOOL SPORTS: Tennis, field hockey

GOLFING HIGHLIGHTS: Playing golf at Old Head Golf Links in Kinsale, Ireland in the summer of 2012 with my husband and friends. The most spectacular course I have even seen or played. Went on to play other courses in Ireland and Scotland that summer as well.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: I am a regular member of Talbot Country Club's WPGA Team and enjoy playing every year against other clubs in our division. Winning the Talbot Country Club member guest tournament in 2013 with WPGA member Jane Kasper.

FAVORITE FOOD: crab cakes

FAVORITE FOOTBALL TEAM: Not really a fan of football, but as a native New Englander, I would say the Patriots.

FAVORITE TV SHOW: The Good Wife FAVORITE MOVIE: Out of Africa

HOBBIES: golf, tennis, travelling, gardening, reading, community volunteering

FAVORITE GOLF COURSE: I really enjoy all of the courses I have played on the Shore. They are all different and present unique challenges. Don't have a particular favorite.

FAVORITE PRO GOLFER: Annika Sorenstam (she has a fabulous golf clothing line now too)
Family: Married to Richard Greenbaum, a psychologist in private practice in Easton. We have two grown daughters living in Washington, D.C. and will be grandparents for the first time in June.

HOW DID YOU GET INVOLVED WITH THE WPGA? I've been a member of the WPGA since I joined Talbot Country Club. When I was asked to join the Club's team to play in WPGA team matches, I learned more about the Association and all of the benefits of membership that I hadn't taken advantage of, particularly the WPGA sponsored tournaments on the Shore and the "open days" at member Clubs. Two years ago I was asked by a past president of the Association if I would serve on the Executive Committee with the understanding that I would be President in 2014.

WHAT ARE SOME OF YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES AS THE WPGA PRESIDENT? As President, I chair the meetings of the Executive Committee composed of the Association committee chairs which normally meets twice a year and I run the two general membership meetings held in the Fall and Spring of each year. I am also charged with finding volunteers to chair each of our committees, setting agendas for each meeting, and guiding the operation of the Association. We have an officers appreciation tournament at the home club of the President each year which I am responsible for organizing this Fall. Our committee chairs really do most of the work of the Association; scheduling and overseeing the operation of WPGA tournaments and team matches, validating membership and distributing membership cards, and handling the finances of the Association. The President's term of office is one year and rotates among the member clubs.

WHAT ARE SOME OF YOUR FAVORITE THINGS ABOUT THE WPGA? The Association provides a wonderful opportunity for women golfers on the Shore to play competitive golf in an organized fashion and through that experience improve their knowledge of the game and athletic skills. It also allows members to play at member courses throughout the region at a reduced fee and to enjoy the tremendous variety of course settings and challenges within a reasonable distance from their homes. Members meet new people and generally enjoy the camaraderie associated with playing a fun round of golf.

ANYTHING PEOPLE DON'T KNOW ABOUT YOU? I was an elected member of the Talbot County Council from 1998-2006 and served as President of the Council for 2 years. I am running again for a Council seat this year and hope to continue serving my community as an active volunteer and elected official.

THE WOMEN'S PENINSULA GOLF ASSOCIATION

The Association has 651 members representing 24 golfing clubs. Member clubs will host 12 tournaments during the 2014 season, including a two-day WPGA Championship tournament at Eastern Shore Yacht and Country Club. The Association also organizes a schedule of inter-club team matches in four regional divisions which will kick off in April. ## MEET DELANEY IACONA AN ASPRING COLLEGIATE GOLFER

Berlin resident, Delaney Iacona, daughter of Cyndi and Chris Iacona, is about to complete her junior year at Stephen Decatur High School, and has competed as a Varsity Golfer all three years. She has been the #1 ranked female high school golfer in the Bayside Conference the past two years and has qualified for the Maryland State High school Tournament as a freshman, sophomore, and junior. Delaney began her golf experience the age of 9 at Cannongate Golf Club in Newnan, GA., and has taken lessons from notorious instructors such as Andy Pittman, who worked with Davis Love III as a junior golfer. Although the lessons were motivating, she did not continue with golf until witnessing the success and accomplishments her brother was earning at the high school level and decided to follow in his footsteps. Starting her quest as a junior member of the Bay Club in Berlin, Delaney had the opportunity to work with local professional Neil Maurer who was instrumental in assuring her she possessed the talent to play competitive golf. Most recently, Delaney has received instruction from Wane DeFrancesco at Woodmont C.C. and local PGA professional Dennis Winters.

Over the past few years Delaney has competed in the Maryland State Women's Golf Association Junior Girls Championship, the ESGM Tour on the Shore, and won on the Delmarva Peninsula Golf Associations Junior Tour as well as the Mid-Atlantic PGA Junior Tour. She will continue to work on her game this spring and summer, working with golf professional Scot Dailey at the Links at Lighthouse Sound.

Delaney is interested in a career in golf and has become focused in learning about the business aspect of the sport while continuing to work on her competitive skills as well. In preparation for the upcoming fall season with the Seahawks she has loaded her schedule with numerous local, regional and national level tournaments, with the hope of gaining recognition from prospective college golf programs. In early April Delaney competed in her first IJGT (International Junior Golf Tour Event) at Hartefeld National C.C. in Avondale, PA. Round 1 was her first competitive round of the year on a hilly course (very unlike the eastern shore) in blustery conditions and she was a bit rusty, however, she performed well enough to earn a position in round 2 in the final grouping. On day two she came out with determination and a relentless "never give up attitude", finishing the event with a very respectable 4th place finish.

Delaney's upcoming schedule of junior tour events takes her all over the Mid-Atlantic Region as she will competing in tournaments from 6,000 yards plus at venues such as the PKBJT (Peggy Kirk Bell Junior Tour) Pennsylvania Classic at Heritage Hills G.C. in York, PA, AJGA (American Junior Golf Association) Preseason Junior at Nemaquin Woodlands Resort in Farmington, PA, MSWGA (Maryland State Women's Golf Association) Junior Girls Championship at Montgomery Village G.C. in Gaithersburg, MD., PGA Junior Series Qualifying Event at Penn State University, USGA (United States Golf Association) 66th U.S. Girls Junior qualifying at The Country Club of Richmond, Tuckahoe Creek Course in Richmond, VA., AJGA Annapolis Junior at Old South CC in Lothian, MD., MSWGA Women's Amateur Championship at Chartwell Golf & CC in Severna Park, MD., and the AJGA Philadelphia Junior at Huntingdon Valley C.C. in Huntingdon Valley, PA.

DELANEY & BROTHER JOE IACONA

From a coach's perspective, not only have the past three years been rewarding to have such a talented and awesome sportsmanship player represent Decatur golf, but I've also been fortunate to witness a player who has tremendous potential to take her game to the collegiate level and become highly successful in a golf profession. Delaney has the entire package: talent, athleticism, intelligence, personality, maturity, and determination are all wrapped up in one amazing young lady. If she puts in the endless hours of work required to take her game to the next level, there's nothing that can stop her from achieving her goals.

During the past three years on the high school team Delaney has accumulated numerous accolades and titles, such as three time Sportsmanship Award, Most Valuable Player 2012, Daily Times Athlete of the Week, and two time Daily Times Athlete of the Year, Bay Club Women's Club Champion, three time All Conference Player, District 8 Female Champion, the #1 top high school female Player of the Year back to back seasons, and carries an impressive 5.7 handicap. This fall Delaney will be a senior Captain on my squad, and I'm confident she will have the most rewarding season of her high school career, shattering all past records. My assistant coach, Don Furbay and myself have really enjoyed coaching and watching Delaney Iacona excel in the game of golf and grow into a top competitor in the Conference.

CHRISTINA VOSTERS

PENN STATE SENIOR

Christina earned BIG TEN WOMEN'S GOLFER OF THE WEEK for her efforts in the Briar's Creek Invitational, conference officials announced Wednesday. This marks the second time that Vosters has won the award, after having earned the honor last season with her sixth place finish at the 2012 Cougar Classic. This is the second time this season that a Penn State golfer has captured the award, as junior Ellen Ceresko (Jefferson Township, Pa.) earned the honor with her effort in the Nittany Lion Invitational.

Vosters won her first career individual championship, spring boarded by tying her career low with a final round 68. The senior was the only golfer under par for the tournament as she finished at one-under par. This is the first individual championship for the blue and white since Ceresko won the Nittany Lion Invitational in 2012.

The Bethany Beach native helped the Nittany Lions to a second place finish in the Briar's Creek Invitational. Penn State finished ahead of several ranked teams, including No. 10/11 ranked Clemson.

Penn State is back in action beginning on March 28 as the Nittany Lions travel to Greensboro, N.C. for the Bryan National Collegiate. Follow Penn State women's golf on Twitter @PennStateWGolf and on Facebook at Penn State Women's Golf.

Vosters earned her second career Big Ten Women's Golfer of the Week honors for her effort in the Briar's Creek Invitational.

Christina has been selected for the NCAA Regional Championships and her team won the award for highest academic average among all PSU sports teams, men or womens.

The Maryland State Golf Association-Women's Division (MSGA-WD) was organized in 1995 to promote amateur golf for women of all ages and abilities. The MSGA-WD works in conjunction with the men's division of the MSGA and other regional, state and national golf organizations to better serve women golfers in Maryland. The Women's Division currently conducts nine championships throughout the state and has expanded the junior girls program by developing an interstate competition between Maryland girls and their counterparts in Virginia, North Carolina, and South Carolina. The MSGA-WD also conducts an annual Rules Seminar featuring top instructors from the United States Golf Association.

FRANK & SUSAN LABER

What's not to like about living in Lighthouse Sound? Settled in between the Assawoman Bay and the St. Martin's River, and home to one of the top 100 golf courses in the country, it is the perfect place for PGA Master Professional, Frank Laber and his wife Susan to call home! When Sue retired from Baltimore County Public Schools in 2002 and the Maryland State Department of Education in 2008, and Frank sold his interest in Black Horse Golf and Learning Center in Whitehall, MD, they were sure about one thing, they were headed to the Eastern Shore. The plan was to sell their summer home in Ocean Pines, purchase a building lot with a view, design a comfortable home, and become full-time residents of Worcester County. On a very cold January day in 2004, they hit the lotto! Bundled in warm layers, they dashed out of their real estate agent's car, gazed over the property on Savanna Ct., jumped back in the car and announced, "We'll take it." "It was so cold that our agent never got out of her car until we convinced her to snap a picture of us standing on our beautiful piece of heaven!"

"Mike Poole, master builder, then Vice-President of Rakow Homes, held our hand through the entire process; he made it fun to be a part of designing and building our home, as well as a learning experience." In 2009, the 3,200 square foot custom home was ready for the Labers. "I don't think we realized how much we were going to love our house and love living in Lighthouse Sound. The pristine views of the wetlands are just breath-taking; the abundant wildlife is astonishing, and the community, warm and welcoming; especially our close neighbors who have become more like family then friends."

"We designed the house with comfort in mind; we selected interior colors that reflect the surrounding environment and furnishings that match our informal lifestyle." The home has an open floor plan that is perfect for entertaining as well!

Frank's 400 square foot man cave houses his golf club and sports' collections; his golf cap collection covers the walls of the garage.

Frank's passion for the game of golf continues through retirement. He is an active Board Member of the MAPGA, is employed part-time at Ocean City Golf Club, and enjoys teaching 3- weekly clinics for the Executive Women's Golf Association at Lighthouse Sound. Frank also offers private and group lessons for locals and vacationers alike. Sue takes advantage of the golf course cart path on early morning power walks, before play, of course, and loves having time to garden, cook, and decorate her lovely home! She is finally taking up the "game" and admits that she is a very lucky woman to live where she does and especially with "her very own" golf instructor very close by!

DPGA

June 1st is the deadline for high school college bound seniors to submit their application for a DPGA scholarship. Each DPGA club is allowed to have one golfing student awarded a scholarship per year. Preferential consideration is given to those that have financial need, are active golfers and/or majoring in or taking courses in a field related to golf, agronomy or agriculture. More information can be obtained from any DPGA club or at the DPGA website at <http://home.comcast.net/~dpga-golf/scholarships.htm>.

The DPGA Junior golf tournament schedule has been released and this year the DPGA clubs will be hosting seven tournaments for the juniors to participate in for them to collect points to play in the 2014 Tournament of Champions on August 4th at Great Hope Golf Club. The 2014 schedule and entry forms can be found on the DPGA website at <http://home.comcast.net/~dpga/juniors.htm>

MISGA

MISGA has started its 2014 summer season which runs from April until October. Division 5 MISGA will be hosting their qualifier tournaments for the ABCD Presidents Cup at Nutters Crossing on June 17th and the 2 Man Best Ball at Nutters Crossing golf course on July 15th.

M I S G A players, contact your club rep to let them know that you would like to participate in these tournaments. The cost to the Div 5 qualifier winners to go to the state tournaments will be discounted this year because the Div 5 MISGA is paying for part of the cost.

At Div 5 opening meeting in April, the Div 5 MISGA group decided again to hold a competition this year among each of the Div 5 clubs to allow a free outing at the end of the season for the top 4 members from each club that travel the most to other MISGA clubs. They believed this completion for a free golf outing increased attendance at last year's MISGA outings.

On MAY 13 – 15, MISGA is hosting their SPRING FLING in WILLIAMSBURG, VA for MISGA members and their spouses where they will be playing the Kiskiack Golf Club, the Golden Horseshoe - Green Course and the Golden Horseshoe – Gold Course.

The STATE ABCD PRESIDENTS CUP TOURNAMENT is scheduled for AUGUST 11TH AT WILD QUAIL CC IN WYOMING, DE and the State Two Man Best Ball Tournament is scheduled for August 7th at Norbeck CC in Rockville, MD.

Salisbury, Maryland

Hole #2 is a Par 4 "thing of beauty", challenging the golfer with water, a narrow fairway and a bunker-protected green. Captain's Cove is highlighted by some of the most beautifully-conditioned greens on the Eastern Shore and a great-value cost of only $25-$40 per round.

Tim Johnson, Golf Professional & General Manager spearheads the Billy Casper Golf team for course and facilities management at Captain's Cove.

CAPTAIN'S COVE Marina Club

Diamond in the rough...

Captain's Cove is one of the most challenging public courses on the Eastern Shore... and, up until now one of the areas' 'best-kept-secrets'. The 9-hole, 18-tee course is challenging for golfers of all abilities, from low-handicappers to those just starting out in the game. Water hazards and bunkers throughout require accuracy and a sharp focus, but Captain's Cove is a course that is enjoyable...birdie or bogey!

When the famous course architect Lester George re-designed Captain's Cove in 2005, his goal was to make sure the player had the opportunity to use every club in the bag.

There's a good reason Captain's Cove is getting noticed: Billy Casper Golf. The world-renowned golf- management company has been running the links for the past year and a half with the expertise that has made them one of the premier golf course and resort management organizations in the world. BCG as they are known in the business, pride themselves on delivering a fun and enjoyable golf-experience for their guests at every one of the 160-plus facilities they manage worldwide.

At the helm of Captain's Cove is PGA Golf Pro & General Manager Tim Johnson. Johnson, age 39, brings his 19-plus years of tournament play, private golf club experience and management skills to the table at Captain's Cove. His vision for the near-term is clear: "Captain's Cove has so much potential; our residents and those who come to play us know we've got the best greens on the Delmarva Peninsula month-in and month-out and, a great-value cost of only $25-$40 per round" Johnson states confidently. "Now that the secret is out, we look forward to hosting players from all over the region," he notes.

Captain's Cove is nestled on the edge of Chincoteague Bay only 45 minutes from Ocean City and only 20 minutes from Chincoteague & Assateague Islands, Pocomoke City and Snow Hill. It is surrounded by beautiful rolling fields and tall, old pine forests. The true, natural beauty of the Eastern Shore is ever-present on every hole at Captain's Cove. Johnson adds: "Golf on the Eastern Shore is so unique in and of itself, and players will love the way Captain's Cove weaves its way through the natural landscape that surrounds it...from rows of pines to our resident Bald Eagle high in the sky keeping watch over the course."

A trip to Captain's Cove will not only provide the golfer with a unique and exciting round, but the Marina Club, located only ¼ mile from the Pro Shop maintains a year-round open public restaurant, bar and nightclub. It a place where foursomes, couples and tournament groups can relax, unwind and enjoy the perfect end to a great day of golf, while dining and taking-in the picturesque view of Chincoteague Bay.

As for the future, Johnson sees Captain's Cove continuing to evolve and mature. "We have many great programs in place for the 2014 season," say Johnson; "included this year is a night-golf tournament series, golf leagues for all playing abilities, weekend tournaments and, great-value annual membership programs. This will be a break-out year for Captain's Cove!" he concludes.

BY PETE ZEMO

As the weather continues to warm up, a lot of us are anticipating another fun golf season. First, however, we have to deal with getting our bodies (and minds) in shape for the upcoming physical activity. And for many of us this involves handling a very common sequela of the winter layoff- joint pain. Here I am not referencing the pain caused by significant medical conditions, such as Phil Mikelson's psoriatic arthritis. I mean just the little aches and pains that all of us experience from time to time and that have been shown, by proper medical evaluation, not to be of a more serious nature- just the ones that we treat with a little aspirin or similar pain reliever.

One of our gym members is a certified nutrition coach; she and I both have experienced the annoyance of minor joint pain and have both tried various circuitous routes to treat it. Interestingly enough, we both independently tried many of the same treatment options and both arrived at something that worked- at least, for the two of us. What we found was relief using a common over-the-counter drug called glucosamine. But what we both also found was that relief also depended on how the drug was taken and whether or no it was taken with ancillary ingredients. We both tried it in various pill forms without results or in the common combination with chondroitin. To make a long story short our best results were obtained when glucosamine was taken in combination with a substance called hyaluronic acid, an effective joint lubricant, and with a potent antioxidant called pycnogenol. There is a company that makes this combination. They left out the chondroitin because of its high molecular weight and poor absorption. Interestingly enough, they produced this product in an isotonic form that allows its rapid and more complete absorption. Since this article is not a commercial operation, I will not mention the name of the over-the-counter product. Suffice it to say I and the nutrition coach have been using it for some time now with excellent results. It is taken once a day and is very easy to use. Actually, I have begun to take it along with another product this company makes for other reasons, but the two seem to work quite well together.

I am sure everyone has their pet cure for joint pain, whether it be anti-inflammatories, specific diets, chiropractic treatment, various exercises, etc. My bottom line is if one of those works for you, continue it. However, if you would like to try the product I described above, contact me and I will be happy to give you the name and how to acquire it. As I am sure you know, my health club is WOC Fitness, located in West Ocean City. Our number is 410-213-7000. If you call, be sure to let them know it is an inquiry generated by this article and not some other solicitation- they get plenty of those.

TOOLS OF THE TRADE "ESJGL"

BY STEVE MENZ

Junior golf is a vital component to growing the game of golf. If I only had a nickel for every client that wished they had started the game at a young age. The Eastern Shore Junior Golf League has been in existence for at least 8 years and has helped us develop some of the areas bright young golf stars. The league provides instruction and weekly matches at local golf courses for both boys and girls. We have worked hard to keep cost very low to provide opportunity for every child to participate. This season we are providing a spring and a fall session. Each session last approximately 6 weeks. The spring session will begin the second week of May and is geared for kids ages 12-16. The past few years Kevin White has been an integral part of keeping the program running. Kevin is still a large part of operations with help from Randy Forster and Kimberly Wilson. This season they have attained the help of The "A" Game Golf Academy. The AGGA is currently working with many of the areas best high school golf stars. We are currently still taking students for the spring session and you can enter your junior by contacting Randy Foster (foster.fam@comcast.net) by May 11th. The fall session is also open to both boys and girls ages 7-16. You can sign up by contacting Kim Wilson (kwilsonmscott@comcast.net). Give your junior an upper hand on the fundamentals of golf and help them learn a game they can enjoy the rest of their life. If you are interested in starting a Junior League at Deer Run on Mondays contact Steve Menz (smenz@agamegolfacademy.com)

YOU KNOW THE DRILL BALANCE = FAIRWAYS

BY STEVE MENZ

If you are having trouble keeping it in the short stuff off the tee, take a good look at your finishing position. If you are having troubles holding a solid balanced position as the ball flies down the fairway then there is a good chance you are swinging the driver too hard. A good finishing position should have all of your weight on your left foot (for right handers) and your chest should be centered over your left knee. If you can't get to that position you are simply swinging too hard. Good balance will result in straighter shots and more fairways hit. Try gearing down on your driver and swinging it at about 70 percent and watch your fairways hit in regulation soar. Believe it or not you will sacrifice little to no distance, most will even gain a few extra yards! Now you know the drill!

2014 CROPPER CUP WINNER NAMED PGA MINORITY GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP GRADUATION

The race for the UMES PGA Golf Management Program Player of the Year has been tightly contested all year. In the final month, with the last two day major tournament on the line (River Marsh and Ocean City Golf Club-Seaside respectively) it was a three man race. Juniors Jesse Williams and Matt Kern battled Senior Anthony Long for the coveted Cropper Cup. Williams won the major tournament but it was Long that pulled out the Player of the Year by a total of 30 points over Williams. "This is the closest Player of the Year race that we have had in our six years," said Chris Prosser, UMES PGA Golf Management Internship Coordinator. Long stated, "I knew going in that I had a big enough lead that I didn't have to win the major. As it turned out, I came in second and it was just good enough to win the Cropper Cup and have my name listed with the past Player of the Year Champions and embedded in UMES PGA program history." Prosser added, "As a bonus this year, our friends at GolfTec donated $500.00 to help the program and we decided to use the gift as prizes for first and second place. The money will be deposited into Anthony and Jesse's student account."

Once again UMES will head to PGA Golf Village in Port St. Lucie, FL for the 2014 PGA Minority Championship. This year UMES will have 13 participants, five will represent the official golf team and the remaining eight students will compete as individuals. The men will compete on the Wannamaker Course while the ladies will compete on the Ryder Course. "The great thing about this tournament is that it counts as an official Playing Ability Test (PAT). We have had a number of students pass their PAT while competing in this tournament. The first two days of the tournament count toward the PAT and the third round doesn't. Also, the PGA of America really takes care of the participants with four rounds of golf, breakfast, lunch, and dinner is served every day, and they supply us with tee gifts like hats and towels. This is a great tournament" said UMES student Nivel Felicien. This year the students will be stopping for a tour of the World Golf Hall of Fame in St. Augustine as the guest of World Golf Foundation CEO, Steve Mona. "Mr. Mona was on campus meeting with the President, upper administration, and PGA Golf Management Program faculty and staff this past February. Mr. Mona has been very gracious in inviting our students to tour the World Golf Hall of Fame and we have every intention of accepting his invitation, the students are in for a treat" said Prosser.

We want to congratulate four students that will be graduating from the UMES PGA Golf Management Program on May 17, 2014. Andrew Haldeman, Anthony Long, RJ Sheppard, and Jacob Roeder are all scheduled to graduate and move on in their golfing careers as soon to be PGA Members. These students have already secured employment at the following facilities:

Andrew Haldeman: Columbia Country Club, Chevy Chase, MD

Anthony Long: Turning Stone Resort, Verona, NY

RJ Sheppard: Suburban Club, Pikesville, MD

Jacob Roeder: GolfTec, Birmingham, AL

TO WORKOUT OR NOT TO WORK OUT- THAT IS THE QUESTION.

Since the recent injury of Tiger Wood's back, there have been a lot of debates and questions regarding fitness and professional golfers. It wasn't that long ago that many of the great players wouldn't even consider lifting weights or running on a treadmill. The only fitness junky that comes to mind when you look back a few decades is Gary Player and he was and still is a rare breed. We know that Tiger Woods changed how golfers approached fitness and has made working out a part of the daily routine on the PGA Tour. There have been people lately who are indicating that maybe Tiger's injuries are a result of too much training and maybe his swing is too violent or a combination of both. No one knows for sure but count Gary Player is one of those people who thinks otherwise. In a recent interview before the Master's, he described his own workouts and how he would squat with heavy weights before majors to get his mind and body prepared for the tournament. He is a believer that the harder you workout the better off you will be in your golfing life as well as your life in general. So if you're on the fence with working out or not working out to help your golf game; go with two of the greatest players of all time in Tiger Woods and Gary Player and hit the weight room. I bet it will help your golf game and I know it will help your overall health. As the saying goes, "You get old by not doing, not by doing" so get your butt off the couch and start some type of fitness program today!

Blowin' Smoke with Leif Burnes.™

My Uzi Weighs A Ton cigars are a collaboration of Drew Estate and Joya De Nicaragua and Kentucky Fire Cured is their latest release. These cigars are made of American grown tobacco hung in barns and slowly fired and then blended with Nicaraguan long filler tobacco. This slow firing adds a definite unique, smokey aroma to the cigars.

Front Nire

Right from the start, the hickory and oak flavors hit you, but in a smooth, creamy way. Not over-powering at all, however if there are other nuances in flavor, I'm having trouble detecting them because I am enjoying the smoked wood. It remains consistent as we approach the back nine. The draw is smooth as well and the body is medium, which suits it just fine for golf.

Back Nire

The smooth, creaminess of the oak and hickory continued right to the finish. Often cigars develop new flavors from the drawing of smoke as you near the end. The KFC never changed. As I enjoyed the smoked wood flavor, I actually found that it enhanced the flavor of the fine Canadian whiskey that accompanied the cigar during this review. I would like to write more but I am having a sudden craving for a nice rack of ribs right about now!

On The Range

Imagine your favorite Bar-B-Que joint going into the cigar business. This is what they should come up with. The smoked hickory and oak aroma is abundantly evident upon first pre-light sniff. The wrapper is a beautiful deep, matte brown in color. I just enjoy smelling this cigar without lighting it.

JACK FROST IS BETTER THAN DAVID FROST

The difficult thing about playing golf in the snow is twofold.

FIRST OF ALL, trying to make a reasonable swing wearing mittens and a scarf is tricky at best, and somewhat dangerous worse case. Most every time I tried, the club got all wrapped up in my scarf, and the grip kept slipping out of my cozy warm ski mittens! One time, the club tangled all up and came back at me, nearly ending my round and possibly my career!

SECOND OF ALL, once you do manage to take that majestic swing in parka, toboggan hat, 12 foot long scarf, and fuzzy mittens, and actually strike the ball solidly off of the tee...you've got to go find it. Now during normal eastern shore snow events, a black or orange ball would suffice. You'd find your frozen top rock sitting on top of about a quarter inch light blanket of the white stuff. No problemo. This year... good luck. To find your ball required a snow blower, and I don't even think anyone on the Eastern Shore knows what one is. Up north we had these amazing machines that tore through snow like Bubba through the field at the Masters! Down south here, you might actually have to dig...with a shovel! Some duffers refer to their irons as shovel, but I guarantee that they would not work in this case!

My last snow round this wonderful winter lasted for about one shot. I teed off on number one and nearly froze to death trying to track down my ball in order to try to literally dig my golf ball out of a nasty lie. My other problem was one of transportation. After I spun out and half flipped my golf cart on an irrigation pond (see it was frozen solid as well), I had to trudge it. Not my style.

I finally gave up thinking...If it's like this next winter, I'm either going to call Mr. Jack Frost to be my partner, or I'm heading into the deep south...where snow is only seen on Christmas Cards! Happy Golfing! Spring, we need you badly! GOLF DEER RUN!!!

I don't know about the rest of you (well, actually I do), but as a golfer I'm always looking for an edge from the tee to the green. What if you could gain an advantage by simply choosing the right pair of sunglasses? Usually its color, style, maybe the weight and most likely whether my wife thinks they look good. Last on my list was whether the lens was appropriate for golf.

I had a chance to compare Oakley's G30 Iridium lens up against a non-golf-specific Oakley lens. The switch to the G30 lens showed an immediate and dramatic difference in what using the right lens can do for your vision. Non-golf-specific lenses do as they should, darken the view and reduce some glare. However, what the G30 lens does is reveal the hidden contours and textures in closely mown areas. Tracking the ball flight was also much easier.

The Oakley G30 Iridium lens will not increase your distance off the tee, but it will improve your view of what lies in front of you. With this extra confidence, I am sure the scorecard will look better too. Stop by Ruddo's Golf in West OC, Fenwick Island or Lewes, DE to test them yourself!

EXPECTATIONS

After winning the Masters in 1997, Tiger Woods decided he needed to change his swing. He chose Butch Harmon, one of the top teachers in the game for the job. While Tiger was working on his changes, David Duval became the number one player in the world. Vijay Singh's Caddy, Paul Tesori wore a hat that said "Tiger who?" He took some abuse while he was not in his top form, but he stuck with it knowing it would pay off in the long run.

Now, how many balls do you think Tiger hit each day, with a top teacher by his side? It still took him a year and a half to come out and say "I have it!" He then went on to win the "Tiger Slam" winning the four majors in a row, but in two years. Now if it took the game's best golfer, with a great teacher, a year and a half to get his swing down to where he believes he "has it", why would you get upset if you didn't "have it" after one lesson and a little or even no practice? Tiger certainly understood what Butch was telling him and he could do it pretty early in the process. By "having it" he meant owning it. He could do it as needed, under pressure and it took time to engrain.

Enjoyment level is directly related to expectations. If you are only able to play once a week and you consider hitting a couple of balls before playing as practice, you shouldn't be terribly upset if your play is less than stellar. If you keep your expectations realistic to your current situation you may find that you'll enjoy your round much more. The best tour pros have a greens in regulation percentage of 72%. That means they miss about four greens per round. Why should you be down on yourself if you miss a few more than that and you probably haven't hit as many practice balls as they have that week. Even Ben Hogan, who set the standard for practice in his day, would expect at least three misses during a round. That wouldn't be upset when the bad shot showed up. Sure, you can give it your best on every shot, but if your expectations match your ability, you'll be a happier golfer and might even play better as a result.

YOUR PATH TO PAR

RICHARD ROBINSON - INSTRUCTOR: THE ORIGINAL GOLF SCHOOL

Drive, chip and putt! A wonderful program to encourage youth participation in golf is also the foundation of a good golf game at all levels. In fact the wisdom to "come as a child", with enthusiasm, the capacity to mimic what is good, and take joy in each accomplishment unencumbered by expectation or constrained by thought, applies to much of life, including golf.

Watch a youngster drive and you will inevitably see a full unrestrained effort to knock the ball far down the fairway. Sometimes losing balance from a club too long or heavy, technique may be lacking, but the notion of a free full swing and the faith that it will take the ball to the target is an indomitable quality of the youthful drive. Just swing free and put it in play is good advice for all ages.

Ask a youngster to chip or putt, their effort, attention, and expectation is that the ball should go in the hole. Every time! When it does children often cheer their own effort reaffirming that the result is what ought to be. When the ball does not go in, they ask not why or how, but merely try again. The fun is in doing it right. More often right is better, but the thrill of the good shot outweighs the consequence of the poor ones. In fact, an errant shot is just an opportunity to make a spectacular recovery. What's done is done just look to the future, is the natural wisdom of youth and is a useful mindset for playing every shot and every age.

This summer there are several opportunities for young players to have fun learning and enjoying the game. Some include the best of all golfing experiences pairing adult and junior players in team competitions. Teaching skillful techniques establishes the foundation for improved performance. But, sharing the love for the game establishes relationships and memories that will be cherished and expanded for a lifetime.

The Original Golf School offers a camp July 21 through July 25, 9 am to 4 pm Monday through Friday, at the Bay Club including five days personalized instruction, on course playing lessons, video swing analysis, and tournament competitions and lunch is provided.

The Junior Tour of Maryland will be at Lighthouse Sound with two Adult /Junior partner competitions the first June 30 and a second on July 30. Junior only tournaments for ages 8-18 are at Rum Pointe July 1 and at Glenn Riddle July 31. The Junior Tour offers the experience of formal competition with an incredible focus on making it fun.

Opportunities for Special Olympic athletes and adult partners are also being scheduled for the summer season.

Attitude is an important factor learning to play your best golf. Share the game with a youngster in your life. To get a Junior Tour Card and for more information about these summer golf experiences call us at the Original Golf School 410-629-0022 it will be fun!

SHORE UP WITH THE GAME COACH

Carson Lovett, MA Sport Psychology

KNOW THYSELF!

A critical review of the final round of the 2014 Masters Golf Tournament reveals the discriminating dichotomy between the perceived mental dynamic of the experienced athlete opposed to that of the beginner. Sport Psychologists and game coaches will contend that inside the mind of Bubba Watson, the seasoned professional and 2012 Masters Champion, the left brain, associated with verbal and analytical functioning, was calm and quiet allowing the right brain, linked to visual and spatial processing, to optimally perform and focus on task-relevant cues such as distance and contour. Conversely, Jordan Spieth, the tenderfoot twenty year old, Under Armour clad, praiseworthy contender and standalone leader by three strokes on the fourth hole of day four may have succumbed to the pressure associated with leading down the stretch at Augusta; an over-stimulated conscious excessively concerned with the routine steps necessary to close out the competition and become golf's youngest Major champion interferes with the precious attention capacity of the first-timer permitting Watson, the wily veteran, to seize the moment for a second Green Jacket. Wisdom, maturity and the implicit comfort that comes from winning the tournament two years prior against the anxiety of youth and the challenge to make history and accomplish a first in the sport likely doomed Spieth, the up and coming star.

Examining, recognizing and applying the principles at work within the relationship between the champion versus the novice may provide valuable insight into the dominion of skill acquisition and progression. The heart of the mental game within the game of golf lies in understanding individual levels of expertise and proceeding accordingly.

NEVER MAKE A BET WITH A MAN

JOKE

BY BOB PHILLIPS

MAC AND JIM WERE PLAYING THEIR HOME COURSE.
MAC PUTTED OUT AND WALKED BACK TO THE CART.
AS JIM SANK HIS PUT, MAC SUDDENLY JUMPED OUT OF THE CART AND DROPPED HIS PANTS. HE HAD JUST SAT ON A BEE AND GOT A NASTY STING AND ASK JIM TO GET THE STINGER OUT.

THE SCENE OF A MAN KNEELING
NEXT TO HIS PLAYING PARTNER'S BARE REAR END
WAS TOO MUCH FOR THE GROUP PLAYING BEHIND THEM.

THE GROUP RACED UP TO THE TWO GOLFERS AND
